CII Why It Matters

Understanding the Carbon Intensity Index

Lead Facilitator and Moderator: Ian Short, Director at CJC

Date: Wednesday 26th June 2024

Time: 15:30 - 17:30

Location: CJC London Office

Target Audience: P&I Claims Handlers / London Shipping Market

Join us for CJC's panel discussion on the Carbon Intensity Index (CII) titled "CII: Why It Matters." The event will take place on June 26, 2024, at the CJC London Office, and is designed for P&I Claims Handlers looking to gain deeper understanding of the workings and issues of the CII.

Led by Ian Short, Director at CJC, and our panel who will delve into the evolution, methodologies, practical considerations, and legal implications of the CII, as well as look to the future and consider possible modifications to CII going forward.

Hear from industry experts including Kenneth English, Associate Director, Technical Expert, Waves Group; Marius Suteu, Senior VP, Lloyds Register Marine Classification Society; Francesco Sandrelli, Policy Director (Environment), UK Chamber of Shipping; Nimia Willems, VP Offshore Services, Liquefied Gas, Alternative Fuels, and Decarbonization, LISCR - Liberian Registry; and Edwin Pang, founder of Arcsilea & Chair of the RINA IMO Committee.

Don't miss this opportunity to gain valuable insights, network with industry peers, and stay ahead in understanding the impact of the CII on the maritime industry. See programme below.
